

citrus at Seward

COMMUNITY CO-OP

Most varieties of citrus have little to no seeds, but the amount of seeds in any specific variety will vary from fruit to fruit.

Skincolor is not an indication of ripeness; citrus ripens on the tree. Choose fruits that are heavy for their size for maximum juiciness.

There are many varieties within citrus categories, and some have short windows of availability during the season. Check the shelves often for new fruit.

S = sweet

T = tart

S+T = combo

Oranges

Cara Cara S

Navel S

Valencia S

Pineapple S

Temple S

Blood Orange S+T

Grapefruit

Oro Blanco S+T

Pink T

Pomelo S

Rio Star S

Ruby T

White S+T

Lemons/Limes

Lemon T

Meyer Lemon S+T

Lime T

Makrut Lime T

citrus at Seward

COMMUNITY CO-OP

Most varieties of citrus have little to no seeds, but the amount of seeds in any specific variety will vary from fruit to fruit.

Skincolor is not an indication of ripeness; citrus ripens on the tree. Choose fruits that are heavy for their size for maximum juiciness.

There are many varieties within citrus categories, and some have short windows of availability during the season. Check the shelves often for new fruit.

S = sweet

T = tart

S+T = combo

Mandarins

Clementine S

Gold Nugget S

Page S

Royal S

Satsuma S

Tangerines

Algerian S

Dancy S

Fairchild S+T

Fall Glow S

Honey S

Murcott S

Nova S+T

Pixie S

Sunburst S

TDE S+T

Kumquats

Limequat T

Mandarinquat T

Centennial T

Hybrids

Minneola Tangelo S+T
(pomelo + tangerine)